

Dr Vasiliki Polymeropoulou holds a PhD in Educational Administration and Evaluation from the University of Thessaly, a M.A. in Theory of Education and Curriculum from the Open University of Cyprus, a M.Ed. in Educational Administration from the University of Thessaly and a BA in History and Archeology from the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. She has been working in Secondary Education in Greece since 2005 and she has administrative experience due to holding a position of responsibility as the head of secondary education educational issues, while she held a managerial position in a school. She is principal of the 4th Experimental Junior High School of Lamia. She is also a postdoctoral researcher at the University of Cyprus. From 2021 she is employed as Collaborating Academic Staff at the university of Frederick and from 2024 by the Open University of Cyprus. Results from her research have been presented in national and international conferences and have been published in peer-reviewed journals. Her research interests are related to the fields of educational leadership, educational evaluation and improvement. She is an Ex-officio Member of the local Service Council.